

PRESENTATION OF THE PROGRAM FOR THE INTERNATIONAL DESIGNATION OF THE ANTIKYTHERA MECHANISM

The Schools of the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, the Polytechnic School and the School of Sciences, the Academy of Institutions and Cultures and the Aristotle Museum of Natural Science of Thessaloniki, completed the particularly significant program for the international promotion of the summital masterpiece of Hellenistic Science and Technology, the analogue Antikythera Mechanism computer.

The program includes the presentation of the Digital Book, Corpus Operae I and the touring Exhibition, of faithful and functional copies of the Antikythera Mechanism in major Universities, Foundations and Museums abroad. The Opening Exhibition of the program will be inaugurated at the end of April, in the City Hall of Thessaloniki.

The presentation will be held in the City Hall of Thessaloniki, in Room "Manolis Anagnostakis" –former Multipurpose Room- on 9th February at 18:00

Konstantinos Katsampalos
Dean of the Polytechnic School

Chariton Chintiroglou
Dean
of the School of Sciences

Spyros Pavlides
Chairman of the Aristotle Museum of Natural Science of Thessaloniki

Konstantinos Karnassiotis
Chairman of Academy of Institutions and Cultures